PUBLIC COMMENT: None

GUEST: Charlie Sappington-President of the Sportsman Club; concerned about the requirement for background checks for liquor license; the club is only open on Sundays and a few special occasions. He would like to see the background check requirement changed to being done once and again when officers change, not annually. He had spoke with the Sheriff about doing the check but they can only do it on the State level.

Ray Diel-Snedeker Risk Management-This is HOPE Trust's 10th year. They are implementing a new idea-if covered employee goes to a preferred provider there will be no deductible or out of pocket costs on the 6500 plan and a max of $1400 on the Health Savings plan. Employees should call Sarah at the office if they have any questions. Teladoc is a free service and has been used more since COVID

ROY CLAPP:

DISCUSS AND TAKE ACTION ON LIQUOR LICENSE REQUIREMENTS-Holkenbrink asked if the cost of the liquor license for the club could be lowered to compensate for the cost of the background check, Black asked if towns require background checks and is this a County or State requirement? It is a County requirement. The background check will show if anything has happened in the State and out of the State. There will be no change to the liquor license requirements.

A Motion was made by Beard and seconded by Parr to approve the Sportsman Club Liquor License.
