DISCUSS AND TAKE ACTION ON AMENDING BYOB RULES-Layton stated that the High Roller Club would like the BYOB rules changed so that they could stay open until 4:00 am. Layton thought maybe a 6-month test run with a 2:00 am closing

Layton made a motion to amend current guidelines from 10:00 pm to 2:00 am with a 6-month probation period. There was no second.

Beard recommends moving the closing time to 1:00 am to match the Liquor ordinance

Robbins was asked about State guidelines and he said there would not be any for the BYOB

There was also discussion on if the rules would apply to Camp grounds or the dirt tracks

Layton made a motion to change the definition of business to exclude campgrounds or any business whose primary purpose is "campground" will be excluded from this definition of business. There was no second

A Motion was made by Heuerman and seconded by Beard to amend the BYOB rules to change the closing time to 1:00 am.

DISCUSS SSA TAX LEVY-Heuerman wanted to clarify that the hearing was to just raise the max rate to $.40. It doesn't mean that the levy would be that much. He presented financial information from the Toledo Ambulance. Toledo has 1 full time Paramedic and 4 full time Basics/2 part time Paramedics and 3 part time Basics at this time. Greenup has 4 full time Paramedics and 2 full time Basics with several part timers also. Greenup will receive approx. $307,000 from the levy this year. If we levied the $.40, the SSA would receive approx $242,000. This is 80% of what Greenup gets and they do double the runs. He is concerned about this. He is also looking into the GEMT program and asking if it would be possible to receive funds if the Toledo Fire subcontracted with the Toledo Amb. He as spoken with John Buckley of the IL Fire Assoc. If the ambulance was through the Fire dept that would help get more dollars per run.

Kaye spoke about the different business models each ambulance service has. Toledo has less emergency runs. Chuck Layton has retired from the Fire district and there will be new opportunities. He was at the last Fire meeting when they chose new leadership Heuerman as also spoke with the States Attorney about contracting with the Fire dept who would then contract with the ambulance service

Blade stated that Greenup residents are paying $.40 now and if they need to service Toledo who pays for it

Ron Black stated that the people need the service, it shouldn't be about the money or business model. The Fire dept needs assurance of funds to be able to run the ambulance service.

DISCUSS LETTER OF SUPPORT FOR NEW BUSINESS- Kaye stated that the name of the business will be Cumberland County Tax Appeal Company. He did not state the ownership. It will be owned by tax payers. It is to help the tax payers through the appeal process. Holkenbrink said that is what the Board of Review is for. He also stated that it would help the hundreds of tax payers confront the levy districts that wrongfully levy
